Add the following as paragraphs i through l:

i. To improve the ISS posture of AMC units and organizations by ensuring that only non-sensitive unclassified defense information is discussed or transmitted over or processed by non-secure information systems.

j. Assist in determining the effectiveness of AMC Operations Security (OPSEC) and security education and training programs. All personnel should realize that information systems security monitoring is an 'after the fact' function. If items of a sensitive or classified nature are discussed or transmitted on a non-secure system, the information is lost, whether or not a friendly monitoring element noted it. The AMC goal is awareness, protection and emphasis on using our information systems correctly to deny any unauthorized person, group, or nation information that may be used to harm us.

k. Provide an effective tool to enhance force protection.

l. Encourage all AMC personnel to employ secure information systems whenever possible.
